

WELCOME TO Carmel Valley Village!

beyond the fog

Sip, Shop, Savor & Stay!

CarmelValleyRoadCo.com See you soon!

Use CarmelValleyRoadCo.com & this map as guides to discover all of Carmel Valley on your way to the Village. Drive out for an afternoon, a weekend, or longer! Leave behind the coastal fog and enjoy everything this hidden gem of a Valley has to offer.

Carmel Valley Village—about 12 miles inland—is a destination unto itself for wine lovers, art enthusiasts, hikers, bikers, and everyone who wants to just escape for a while. This unique enclave offers a slower pace, plenty of warm sunshine, and friendly folks. And, it's easily walkable, only 0.6 mile end to end!

It's known for the two dozen wineries, each with it's own specialty & vibe, so close together. But you'll also find ART—like the Carmel Valley Art Association Gallery—as well as other contemporary artisans. Folks visit Carmel Valley Village for these reasons and more, including award-winning restaurants, one-of-a-kind retail, and quaint accommodations under the stars.

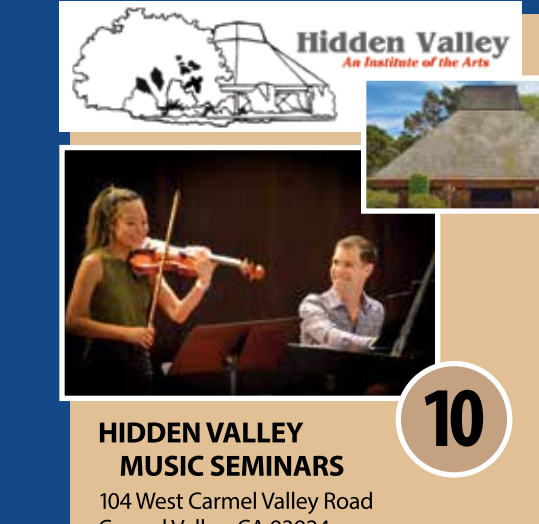

The Carmel Valley Art Association Gallery is located in sunny, warm Carmel Valley Village. Enjoy the drive along Carmel Valley road past ranches, vineyards, farms and livestock to visit our gallery and meet an artist every day! Our collection of 30+ local artists display exceptional talent in a wide variety of media. From painting, mixed media, photography and sculpture to mosaic, ceramic, and a large collection of estate & Native American jewelry, there's something special for everyone who enjoys beauty and unique expression. Choose a one-of-a-kind piece to take home as a souvenir of your travels to this little slice of heaven.

Plaza Linda serves up outstanding fresh and healthy Mexican food prepared by Chef Velis Bonilla (former chef of The Lodge at Pebble Beach). Their menu also includes Vegetarian entrees.

Plaza Linda makes their own chips, salsa, enchilada sauce, salsa verde, ranchera sauce and beans—from scratch—as well as its famous margarita house mix.

Jesus Velis Bonilla is the owner of Plaza Linda Restaurant, a family business previously owned by the Diaz family for more than 45 years.

Come relax and enjoy a wonderful meal, or join friends for a drink at the Bar, at Plaza Linda Restaurant, a local's favorite!
